Mr. Touch Bunsoeum represents of CMC went directly to give this wheelchair in his school

School Director

The woman with two children is widow. Her husband left her since her son became disable.

His younger brother is alsodisable, but CMC don't have any more wheelchairs remain for him.

They both put their hands together to thank deeply to all charities who gave this wheelchair to him for using and traveling.

I, pastor Bunsoeum , represent of Cambodian Ministries for Christ International so I would like to than k deeply to all the charities that provide these wheelchairs to the handicap in Cambodia. These people are lacking of anything and so poor.

May God bless you all and successful in your career.
